ABOUT THE COLLECTION

The first collection from The Olphactory, titled Winter Select, is an invitation to immerse yourself in the heart of winter through three exceptional fragrances that capture the essence of this magical and evocative season. Designed to transform any space into a cozy and sophisticated retreat, Winter Select draws inspiration from the unique nuances and sensations that only winter can offer. Each set in this collection is an ode to different facets of winter, from comforting sweetness to revitalizing freshness, offering a sensory experience that transcends the ordinary. With this collection, The Olphactory seeks not only to fragrance the environment but also to awaken emotions and memories, transporting those who enjoy it to a world of warmth, elegance, and nature in its purest form.

Winter Candy is a tribute to the sweetness and comfort of cold days, with notes that evoke the warmest and coziest moments of winter. Salted Caramel, on the other hand, combines the irresistible aroma of salted caramel with subtle touches that evoke the indulgence and sophistication of the season. Finally, Nordic Forest transports you to the cold and serene landscapes of the north, where the fresh and natural scents of the forest mingle with the pure and revitalizing air.
